RE: P/0250/21 51A Roxborough Park

Dear Shamal London

This property occupies a very prominent position along Roxborough Park and the application would result in the loss of the definition of the front boundary. We would wish to guard against complete hard standing to the front and vehicles being able to drive over the front curb. The maintenance of planting would be consistent with a more rural character at the entrance to the conservation area.

Yours sincerely
